Father's Day Gift Idea for the Foodie Who Has Everything:

"Be The Chef" Event at Benihana Bethesda and Dulles Puts Dad Front and Center

MIAMI, Fla. (May 20, 2008) – Imagine Dad transformed into a steak-flipping, knife-wielding showman chef, preparing dinner for the family under the watchful eye of a Benihana master chef. The "Be The Chef" event at Benihana's Bethesda and Dulles restaurants is a Father's Day gift that clearly puts Dad front and center and includes the training he'll need to impress his audience of adoring family members.

"If you're looking for a unique Father's Day gift, our 'Be The Chef' event package gives Dad a rare opportunity to entertain the family while showing off his new skills," said Juan Garcia, President of Benihana.

The "Be The Chef" package includes personal training on the intricate combination of knife and tabletop hibachi cooking skills made famous over the past 44 years by Benihana restaurants, a signature Benihana chef hat and apron, a Polaroid photo, dinner for four and gratuity. Dinner includes Benihana's famous tender steak, juicy chicken, salad, soup, shrimp appetizer, rice and green tea, all for just $140. Additional guests can be added for only $35 per person.

Training classes and "Be The Chef" dinner performance dates will be scheduled with the restaurants following purchase.
